

BOYD'S
Stamford and Norwalk

GENERAL DIRECTORY,

INCLUDING

A BUSINESS AND FARMERS'

Directory of Fairfield County

FOR THE YEARS

1881-82.

Compiled and Published by

W. ANDREW BOYD.

HOME OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

PRINTED BY

MACRELLISH & QUIGLEY, BOOK AND JOB PRINTERS, 16 E. STATE ST., TRENTON, N. J.

1881.

VERBUM SAT SAPIENTII.

In presenting this our first issue, we ask your kind consideration. It has taken us a few days longer than we expected, on account of the vast field to canvass to make the book a complete one. As injustice is done nearly every Directory, we suggest that "to find a name, you must know how to spell it."

We have done all in our power to make this Directory a success, and feel assured that the public will at once recognize its superiority over all other Directories published of Fairfield County, and will continue its publication from time to time, as the demand requires.

We thank the public all for their assistance, and to those who never buy, but borrow from their neighbors, and then find fault,

WE ASK FORGIVENESS,

THE PUBLISHER.

NOVEMBER, 1881.

CLOTHING

AT THE OLD STAND,

88 MAIN ST., OPP. THE OLD BANK,
STAMFORD, CONN.

If you will call, we will sell you our splendid Cloths at LOWER PRICES than any other House in Stamford.

The Stamford Herald.

ESTABLISHED 1875.

Office, 40 Town Hall Building.

GEO. BAKER, Editor and Proprietor.

Independent, Conservative, Enterprising.

Circulation equally as large as that of any other paper published in Stamford, if not larger.

The Herald aims to fully represent Stamford and the neighboring communities; to uphold the right and condemn the wrong, without fear or favor; to promote, by every means in its power, the public welfare; to give complete reports of all local matters of interest.

In the opinion of the larger portion of the people, its influence far exceeds that of any other local journal in the same field.

THE HERALD

JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT

IS WELL EQUIPPED WITH

The Best of Type, Power Presses and General Machinery.

It has experienced and skillful workmen, and consequently is favored with a large patronage. All its work—from an ordinary poster to the most intricate piece of printing for the fastidious—is fully up to a high standard of excellence.
